Mrs. Don W. Howell

Dear Mrs. Howell:

As I wrote you some time ago, I would be happy to attempt to secure the records here of your two Grandfathers and three Uncles who served in the Confederate cause. I was able to devote a few hours to your problem recently and found the following:

JAMES S. CARLTON

brother
my and mother
Company F, 52nd North Carolina Infantry, Confederate, conscripted on March 23, 1863 at Statesville by Captain W. J. Miller for a period of three years or the war. He was first assigned to Company K of the 53rd North Carolina Regiment, but was transferred to Company F of the 52nd on September 13, 1863. He is shown as a native of Wilkes County and was age 18 when conscripted. He died in the Confederate States General Hospital, Camp Winder, Richmond, Virginia, October 27, 1864—disease: "Phthisis Pulmonalis." I understand that this is lung consumption.

CHARLES CARLTON

father } Samuel Carlton, my grandfather
Captain, Company B, 5th North Carolina Regiment, Senior Reserves. This Company was originally Company B and was referred to as Captain Carlton's Company, Stowe's Battalion, North Carolina, Senior Reserves. It was also listed as Company A of the 5th North Carolina Regiment, Senior Reserves, C. S. A. It was formed about December 5, 1864, by the addition of three unattached Companies to Stowe's Battalion of North Carolina, Senior Reserves, and at that time becoming Company A. Captain Carlton was elected Captain on July 7, 1864. The 5th Regiment was mustered into Confederate service on December 5, 1864. Captain Carlton was age 45 in 1864. His enlistment was July 7 (year not given but undoubtedly 1864) and his place of enlistment was Wilkesboro, by N. A. Pool.

Prior to his becoming a Captain, Charles Carlton was a Sergeant, Company F, Wilkes Grays, 52nd North Carolina Infantry. He was first mustered into service on April 28, 1862 at Camp Mangum near Raleigh, having been enrolled on March 14, 1862 at Wilkesboro by M. A. Parks, Justice of the Peace. He was age 43, his occupation a farmer, and was shown as being born in Wilkes County, and his height is listed at six feet. He was discharged from Company F on May 24, 1862, "being over 35 years of age" and undoubtedly returned home and later on helped organize his own company and served, as previously described, as an officer in the Senior Reserves.

*Brother of Eliza
my grandmother*
-2-

THOMAS C. CARLTON

Private, Company F, Wilkes Grays, 52nd North Carolina Infantry, enrolled in Wilkesboro March 14, 1862 (the same date as Charles Carlton) by M. A. Parks, Justice of the Peace. He was also mustered in at Camp Mangum on April 28, 1862 and his enlistment was for three years or the war. He was appointed 4th Corporal, September 23, 1863 and was promoted from 4th to 2nd Corporal March 1, 1864.

The muster roll for Company F dated October 31, 1864 shows him as being "absent, wounded" at the Episcopal Church Hospital, Williamsburg, Virginia, having been admitted October 11, 1862 with the complaint: "typhoid fever." (Confederate Archives, Chapter 6, file 263, page 43). The records show that he died April 14, 1865 at the Confederate States of America General Hospital, Farmville, Virginia, of "cont. fever." (Undoubtedly the abbreviation stands for continuing or continuous fever.)

One interesting thing is that I found the original copy of his requisition for fuel for his Company dated August 31, 1864 "in the trenches at Petersburg, Virginia" for "two cords of wood." This is signed "T. C. Carlton, Corporal, Commanding Company." (The Lieutenant of this Company was Acting Adjutant of the Regiment; Carlton was temporarily commanding the Company.)

JOHN P. CARLTON Brother of Samuel, my grandfather

Private, Company D, 9th North Carolina Troops (which was the First Cavalry). He enlisted September 30, 1863 at Camp Vance (which was near Morganton) by Major McRae, for the war. He is shown as sick in hospital on August 31, 1864. No date is given as to when he left the service or other details.

BURTON CARLTON Father of Eliza Carlton, my grandmother

Private, Company A, 5th Regiment, Senior Reserves (which became Captain Charles Carlton's Company B) from Wilkes County. The muster roll for September 27, 1864 shows him as age 46, height 5'10", blue eyes, a farmer, born Wilkes County, North Carolina. The date of enlistment is July 7 (no year given, but again undoubtedly 1864) enlisted by N. A. Pool, and is shown present for January and February, 1865, which is the last record and there is no record as to the date of his discharge.

If you will take this information and go to any good public library and secure Clark's North Carolina Regiments, 1861-1865, you will find histories of all regiments, including the one listed in this letter. This will enable you to tell in more detail the places these regiments were in service during the war.

I am sorry that it has taken this time to obtain the information, but this sort of thing does require rather extensive research and I hope that this will be of help to you and will serve as a foundation for your further study of Civil War history.

I have had the pleasure of going to the battlefields where my Grandfather fought as a boy in the 5th North Carolina Cavalry Regiment. I am having lunch today with Dr. Bell Irvin Wiley who is a noted Southern Historian and author and I spend a great deal of time talking with scholars and others who have given much study to the history of the Civil War. For this reason and for the reason that I am Secretary to Senator Sam J. Ervin, Jr. of North Carolina, who loves our State and our Southland dearly, I am always glad to do what I can to help people learn about the records of their forebears who served the Confederacy.

Sincerely yours,

Harry Gatton
